Dear Mr. Musgrave:

This responds to your Freedom of Information request dated June 27, 2013 for records related to the Secretary of the Army's Report to Congress on the "time-sensitive" and "mission critical" airlift requirements of the Army. This included airlift movements and sorties required for training, steady-state, and contingency operations and a listing of the number of sorties using aircraft of the Army, aircraft of the Air Force, aircraft of contractors, and others not already listed. Also, requested are records that explain why Air Force aircraft were not used. Your request is being processed in accordance with Title 5 United States Code 552, The Freedom of Information Act.

Please be advised that this office serves as the policy and oversight office for the Department of the Army Freedom of Information and Privacy Act entities and is not a repository for documents maintained by the Department of the Army. Requests for information and documents under the purview of the Army are forwarded to the activity most likely to have records for processing, and that activity has the responsibility for the review and release of the records in accordance with Army Regulation 25-55, The Army Freedom of Information Act Program.

We have forwarded your request to the following activity for action and direct response to you.
